

Nikitenko O.I.

*Doctor of Juridical Sciences, Associate Professor,
Honoured Lawyer of Ukraine, Colonel of Militia,
Professor at Department of Senior Lecturer at Department of Administrative,
Criminal Law and Procedure,
International University of Business and Law*

FOREIGN EXPERIENCE IN PROVIDING THE STATE INTERNAL SECURITY BY LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES AND POSSIBILITIES OF ITS APPLICATION IN UKRAINE

Adverse changes in quality characteristics in the area of internal security are peculiar not only for our country but for almost all countries. In those where the socio-economic and political conditions are prevailing, the importance of effective law enforcement activities on internal security is further improving. Along with solving the task of internal security, law enforcement authorities use specific tools and methods that allow ensuring high performance, efficiency, and end results.

Theoretical problems of improving the internal security of the state by law enforcement agencies are to develop based on a comprehensive analysis the theoretical, methodological, institutional, and legal framework and define the purpose and future trends and prospects for activity on the internal security of Ukraine and ways to improve its provision by law enforcement authorities.

Law enforcement system of Ukraine today is unable to effectively carry out its state functions and tasks in the area of internal security of Ukraine. Internal security of the state by law enforcement agencies has its own characteristics, which primarily depend on the nature of public tasks and functions concerning ensuring the internal security of the state, their powers, forms and methods of professional activity.

Results of the conducted study show that in today's development of our country, taking into account the achievements of jurisprudence and administrative law, there is done a complex analysis of problem issues of ensuring in foreign countries the state internal security by law enforcement authorities and its application in Ukraine.