

Yeshchuk O.M.

*Candidate of Juridical Sciences,
Senior Lecturer at Department of Administrative and Commercial Law, Kherson State University*

CLASSIFICATION OF LEGISLATION IN THE FIELD OF ADMINISTRATIVE LEGAL PROTECTION

It is time to look for alternative ways to improve life in Ukrainian society, and this usually follows the path of real security of enshrined in the Constitution of Ukraine rights and freedoms of man and citizen and overcome difficulties to solve numerous state and legal issues. These accents encourage domestic jurisprudence to search for ways to improve the administrative and legal protection at the present stage, according to the realities of today. In this perspective, one should examine the current legislation on administrative and legal protection and determine the classification criteria.

Based on the legal opinion of scientists in the field of administrative law and the statutory regulations of the current legislation, the author aims to make a detailed analysis of the current statutory regulation of administrative and legal protection and identify features of its classification at the current stage of development of our country.

Theoretical and practical problems and prospects of development of administrative and legal protection are considered in works of such scientists as V.B. Averianov, A.V. Venedyktov, V.V. Halunko, A.I. Yelistratov, V.V. Ivanovskyi, L.V. Polishchuk, Z.M. Rakhlin, V.D. Riezvykh, I.Ya. Foynytskyi and others. This is certainly not a complete list of scientists who was interested in these issues but they investigated related or broader issues or individual aspects. A classification of legislation on administrative and legal protection was not carried out thoroughly.

As a result of this research, based on the legal opinion of scholars in the field of administrative law and the norms of current legislation, a detailed analysis of the current legislative regulation of the administrative and legal protection is made in this article; the classification of the legislation in this area is done.